This remarkable achievement reflects the dedication and teamwork of our students and their mentors under the guidance of the Research & Development (R&D) Cell.

Celebration of Vachan Prerna Divas

KJCOEMR celebrated Vachan Prerna Divas with great enthusiasm. Staff and students gathered in the library, where a calm and inspiring reading atmosphere was created.

Reading various books—an activity that truly reflected the essence of the day.

The celebration motivated students to appreciate the joy of reading. Many expressed interest in borrowing more books from the library and making reading a regular habit. Teachers also emphasized how reading enhances vocabulary, imagination, and critical thinking. The day successfully encouraged students to step away from screens and connect with books. The activities not only enriched their knowledge but also strengthened a positive reading culture within the campus.
