About Program

The Program was "Inauguration of Research and Development Cell in E&TC".We Inaugurated R&D Cell in order to strengthen and expand the research activities in the institute, to involve the students in Research.

R&D Lab is divided into different sections: 1.PIC & MPLAB section 2.ARM & KEIL section 3.FPGA & XILINX Section 4.Project development tool section 5.DSP & MATLAB Section and student project section. In Lab we presented some VLSI, FPGA Related posters made by our Faculty. R&D lab has instruments like Network Analyzer, Logic Analyser, OTDR, and Universal Programmer.

Inauguration program started with cutting of ribbon by Honorable guests Shri.Kalyanrao Jadhav (President KJEI). Mrs Thite T.G. welcomed all guests. She gave overview of objectives of R&D cell and introduced every section of Lab to the guest. Students demonstrated every section of Lab with projects. All guests appreciated the work done by all R&D cell coordinators.

Program Outcome:

1. Research and innovation importance inculcated among the students.
2. Faculties were motivated to explore knowledge in their domain.
3. Developed research culture in various departments of the institute.
4. The Institute has built up importance for the study of research.
5. Committee members gained good management skills to conduct inauguration program.
