National Pharmacy Education Day

Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) has declared March 6th to be National Pharmacy Education Day in remembrance of Professor Mahadev Lal Shroff's birth anniversary and to honor his role in founding pharmacy education in India. With a vision to strengthen the Research Environment in the field. This year theme for National Pharmacy Education Day- Pharma Anveshan 2025 was "Entrepreneurship & Startups in Pharma and Pharmacy Practice: Encouraging Innovation, Incubation Centers and Pharmaceutical Startups,". The seminar began with our respected principal sir and the faculties offering gratitude to Mahadeva Lal Schroff: Father of Indian Pharmacy Education and lighting the lamp in front of his photograph. Further on the students of TCOP presented well explained and elaborated presentations & speech on the stage of the seminar hall related to life & contribution of M.L. Schroff Sir highlighting his contributions in starting pharmacy education in India. Students also explained about the importance of the pharmacy field, and the the evolution of the pharmacy in India. The efforts and presentations were well appreciated by all. The programme ended with a vote of thanks given Ms. Pooja Gaikar student of TCOP. The entire event was conducted successfully under the guidance of Ms. Areej Siddiqui and was concluded with words of motivation given by respected Principal sir.

International Women's Day Celebration

UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization) states, "International Women's Day is an occasion to celebrate the progress made towards achieving gender equality and women's empowerment but also to critically reflect on those accomplishments and strive for a greater momentum towards gender equality worldwide. It is a day to recognize the extraordinary acts of women and to stand together, as a united force, to advance gender equality around the world."

This year's theme for International Women's Day was "Accelerate Action", emphasizing the urgency of advancing gender equality.

At seminar hall, the event was organized by Assistant Professor Mrs. Areej Siddiqui and Mrs. Pallavi M. Suryawanshi in prior consultation with the Principal Dr. S.R. Chaudhari on 7th March 2025. All ladies staff & girl students were gathered in seminar hall to celebrate the remarkable achievements of women empowerment, and womens leading the charge for change.

The program started by offering of prayers & lighting of lamp to the goddess Saraswati. The Chief Guest of the function was Adv. Anjali Pawar; Director at Sakhee and Adoptee Rights Council, Pune. Adv. Anjali Pawar; Director at Sakhee and Adoptee Rights Council, Pune, was invited as a chief guest where mam addressed the B. pharmacy & D. Pharmacy girl students along with female staff members of TCOP on the topic, "For All Women & Girls: Rights, Equality, Empowerment". Mam truly justified the theme of "Accelerate Action" during her interaction with the students. She also pointed out how women's can bring about a change in the society. She inspired the students with her motivational approach. Adv. Anjali Pawar also did a fabulous job of clearing the doubts that arose in the young minds during the session. It was delivered by Dr. Nalanda Borkar, she expressed her gratitude to the guest speaker, management & staff for organizing the event successfully. The seminar ended with the photo session & small refreshment served to all gathered ladies.
