Message From The Desk ...

I'm delighted to know that KJEI, Trinity College of Pharmacy in Pune, is releasing its yearly newsletter, Trinity Pharma e-Line 2023 issue 4. Undoubtedly, the college newsletter will contribute in the promotion of the college's multiple activities. It acts as a showcase for the faculty's achievements and successes in the classroom. This strengthens the documentation culture at the institute. It also facilitates the development of teamwork, which is essential in today's competitive global environment. I hope that this tradition of sending out newsletters continues indefinitely. We educate in a unique and creative way, and our students learn in a unique and creative way. This has been a watershed moment for our programme, and we are grateful for your continued support and efforts on behalf of our students.

Hon. Shri. Kalyanji Jadhav Founder President

I'd like to congratulate Trinity Pharmacy on this Trinity Pharma e-Line e-newsletter 2023. Comprehensive course work, theory, practical, seminar presentations, and research projects are all part of the Pharmacy curriculum. Aside from academics, students are also involved in cultural and sporting activities, as well as different competitions and social activities. I am delighted to present the third issue of Trinity Pharma e-Line 2023, and best wishes for the newsletter's continued success.

Shri. Vinod K. Jadhav
Treasurer, KJEI

I'm delighted to be able to share my thoughts in the Fourth Trinity Pharma e-Line newsletter 2023. First and foremost, I'd want to extend a warm greeting to everyone at KJEI. I assure you that we will guide you in our institute in order to help you achieve your goals in the field of pharmacy. The college's goal is to prepare students for careers as pharmacists by informing them of their rights and responsibilities regarding moral concerns based on pharmacy ethics and values. I admire the efforts of the Principal of Trinity College of Pharmacy and the editor of the Trinity Pharma e-line in providing opportunities for young minds to aspire, think, invent, and innovate!!

Mrs. Harshada V. Jadhav Managing Director, KJEI

I'd like to express my gratitude to Trinity College of Pharmacy for producing this Trinity Pharma e-Line newsletter. Beyond academics, it has made a name for itself among Pharmacy Colleges in the community by hosting, participating in, and organising seminars, workshops, placement exercises, and among other things. The efforts of good administration, dedicated teaching faculty, quality students, and a broad foundation of sophisticated instruments, an enlarged library, and an educationally supportive environment are undoubtedly responsible for this accomplishment. I warmly welcome you to explore this new e-Newsletter and make a visit to our college campus to get a feel of our vibrant academic atmosphere.

Ms. Vibhavari K. Jadhav, Managing Director, KJEI

The News Letter is a source of great pride and satisfaction for KJEI, Trinity College of Pharmacy, Pune. The College has made significant success in all academic and non-academic areas, as well as capacity building for staff and students. I am confident that this edition of Pharmacy News Letter will send a positive message to staff, students, and others interested in technical education and technology-based activities. I appreciate the Editorial Board of this News Letter for their hard work and efforts in completing the work in record time. Also, please accept my deepest congratulations to the staff and students for their successful efforts with Best Wishes.

Maj. Gen. Sameer Kalla Executive Director

The News Letter is a source of great pride and satisfaction for KJEI, Trinity College of Pharmacy, Pune. The College has made significant success in all academic and non-academic areas, as well as capacity building for staff and students. I am confident that this edition of Pharmacy News Letter will send a positive message to staff, students, and others interested in technical education and technology-based activities.
